SENATE STRIPS ERMINE OFF JUDGE ARCHBALD

Federal Jurist is Found Guilty On Five of the Thirteen Counts Against Him.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Robert W. Archbald of Scranton, Pa., for 29 years a jurist was adjudged guilty by the United States Senate of "high crimes and misdemeanors" stripped of his office and forever disqualified from holding positions of public honor and trust.

Upon five of the thirteen charges brought against him by the House, Archbald was found guilty. On the other eight he was found not guilty. A majority of the Senate in some cases was against him but failed of the two-thirds necessary for conviction. Any one of the five indictments of guilty was enough to bring about the punishment imposed.

The vote on the first charge, influencing corruptly the officials of the Erie railroad to sell him the Katydid culm dump, resulted in his conviction 68 to 5. Those voting not guilty were Burnham, Catron, Oliver, Paynter and Penrose.

In a little committee room off the gallery floor behind a guarded door Archbald, his wife and son Hugh sat throughout the afternoon. The last vote was carried to him by his son. After sentence was imposed he left with his family for Scranton.

"I have never done wrong and no vote and no one makes it otherwise" was his only comment. Sentence was imposed by Bacon of Georgia after the Senate had voted 39 to 35 to uphold the resolution of O'Gorman authorizing the full penalty provided. The sentence became operative immediately.

Of the ten men impeached before the Senate Archbald is the third to be convicted. The second charge was not sustained by two votes, and on the third he was convicted 60 to 11; the fourth guilty, 52 to 20; the fifth, guilty 66 to 6. On the thirteenth charge many asked to be excused from voting because the charges were too general. The vote was guilty 42 to 20. On the charge that Archbald had accepted wrongfully a purse of $500 raised among Scranton attorneys the vote was 65 not guilty to one guilty. The single vote was cast by Ashurst of Arizona.

LONDON, Jan. 13.—Sir Edward Grey, British Foreign Secretary and the Ambassadors of the Powers are making strenuous efforts for a peace settlement. They have warned the Balkan and Turkish delegates that should Europe again be plunged into war through the obstinacy of either side the part at fault will incur the heavy weight of their disapproval.

The Ambassadors discussed fully the note to be presented to the Porte. The general impression prevailed that the final decision must come from Turkey. It seems certain the allies will not consent for Turkey to retain Adrianople. The Turks made no move to carry out their threat to leave London.

HIS OWN VOTE GETS WEBB COVETED JOB

By Associated Press.

PHOENIX, Jan. 13.—The votes of himself and John R. Hampton will enable W. T. Webb to carry Arizona's electoral vote to Washington. Elector Jones voted for Mrs. Brady O'Neill, a suffrage leader.

Wiley E. Jones made a short statement to the effect that he favored sending a woman to Washington with the returns. It would be a delicate compliment to the women of the state, he said, and would attract a great deal of attention throughout the country.

"I have no particular woman in mind," he said. "I'll support any woman whom you name."

"I will vote against any woman," replied Webb.

Hampton and Webb pressed Jones to mention the names of some women. He finally mentioned those of Mrs. Frances Munds of Prescott, Mrs. Eugene Brady O'Neill of Phoenix, and Mrs. Inix Lee of Stafford, all leaders in the late campaign for the adoption of equal suffrage in Arizona.

"Nominate one of those women,"

Webb said. "I'll have the pleasure of voting against her."

"I'll nominate Mrs. O'Neill," returned Jones.

A move was made to vote by ballot, but Webb said: "I don't see any need of that; I'm going to vote for Webb."

"So am I," Hampton interjected.

"I'll vote for Mrs. O'Neill," said Jones.

Immediately thereafter he withdrew his vote for Mrs. O'Neill and made it unanimous for Webb.

Scion of Wealthy New York Family Shoots His Bride and Then Kills Himself.

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—Donald Jadwin, son of a wealthy New York family, shot his wife Minna Van Bergen Jadwin as she sat with other members of the family, then shot himself and died two hours later. They had been married seven months and until recently had been leaders in smart social circles. Mrs. Jadwin was nineteen and the husband twenty-five. The wedding was one of the leading society events of June.

For two months they had been living with Mrs. John A. Bauer, the wealthy grandmother of Mrs. Jadwin. Ten days ago they quarreled and the husband left the house in a rage. Tonight when the family, including the wife's grandmother, mother, aunt and brother were at dinner Jadwin came into the dining room apparently ready for reconciliation. He approached his wife smiling, kissed her and in a flash whipped out two revolvers and shot her twice. Both bullets took effect and the young woman died instantly before the horrified relatives could move. Jadwin then coolly placed the muzzle of one of the smoking pistols to his head and pulled the trigger. Jadwin was a brother of Mrs. Frank B. Anderson, wife of the president of the Bank of California.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Changes in the directorate of the Southern Pacific is believed to have been the direct outcome of the conference last week of Wickersham and representatives of the Harriman interests. It is understood the Attorney General told Chairman Lovett of the Board of Directors of the Southern Pacific he would consent to no dissolution plan until the Southern Pacific board was relieved of men who held a similar position on the Union Pacific board. The selection of Julius Kruttschnitt as chairman of the Southern Pacific board excited no surprise as he has devoted the greater part of his attention to that property.
